

The background is a solid, vibrant orange. Overlaid on this are ten vertical bars of a slightly different shade of orange, creating a striped effect. The bars vary in height and are positioned at regular intervals across the width of the page. The text is located in the upper right quadrant, to the right of the bars.

1968

VOLUME V
PART ONE

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2010 with funding from Lyrasis Members and Sloan Foundation

<http://www.archive.org/details/logos680511968flor>

Logos 68

Volume V

Part I

no you are not finished you have not borne the limit nor the change nor the desire you have nothing to bind you as rain binds the sun as a glass its contents as the sand the ocean
as time the moment
as the grave man

you are boundless
the "facu shall nots" are spoken by you and not of you no it is not true that you begin to perceive in your power the transparency which announces the end the end is one form dissolving in another at that precious moment when motion disannuls itself and the panoramas of your vision terminates in a less immediate cause this is the sort of life you lead these are the relations in which you stand to each other when words make their appearance and now when you have been repaid by loss of speech you realize your own impressions and you have neither admiration nor admirers

you take your fill of life and imitate its character down to the smallest detail you reproduce the manner the custom and emotion of real people but you are passed unseen in an empty carriage and you do not succeed in binding even that impression of reality of which you starve If this is the reason that you have come then you will leave unnoticed and unclaimed

LOGOS

Volume V Part I

produced by

DWIGHT TAWNEY and
WILLIAM WAGHORNE
DAVID WISE (Graphics)

copyright 1968 by

Florida Presbyterian College
St. Petersburg, Florida printed by

Foote & Davies (Division of McCall Corp.)
Doraville, Georgia

